REES

PROMOTING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PEOPLE
WITH PHYSICAL DISABILITIES AND/OR HEALTH CONDITIONS

About REES

Reaching E-Quality Employment Services (REES) has helped people with physical disabilities and/or health conditions connect with quality employment since 1989. REES offers a wide range of employment counselling and consultation services, connecting Winnipeg job-seekers with employers.

The REES team brings expertise in working with persons with physical disabilities and/or health conditions, employment and business, with strong links to Winnipeg employers and service providers. REES has built a positive reputation for exceptional participant support and ethics for almost three decades.

REES offers employment services to people with physical disabilities and/or health conditions. For job seekers who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing, our team can provide service in American Sign Language (ASL).

REES believes that collaboration with employers and other community agencies is essential. REES takes great pride in providing information about equitable and respectful workplace practices that contributes to the independence of people with physical disabilities and/or health conditions. Take advantage of the knowledge and resources that REES has to offer!

Job Seekers

REES assists job seekers with finding and keeping meaningful employment. The programs and services offered improve job-search skills, help with connecting with employers and advancing career goals. There are work assessment programs or work experience available to those who qualify. Remember, there is no charge for the services offered! Here is the REES process:

- ◆ Contact REES
- ◆ Connect with an Intake Worker/REES Counsellor
- ◆ Join a REES program
- ◆ Participate in a variety of workshops, training activities, one on one counselling sessions or other REES services
- ◆ Connect with potential employers
- ◆ Accept the job offer!
